2022-2023 Budget Hearing Open at 2:00 p.m.

CHAIRMAN'S REPORT - Megan Thompson

Chair Thompson reported that the Five State Meeting was held on May 18, 2022. Thompson and Secretary/Treasurer Stacey Cooper were in attendance. Estimates of crop numbers were low, considering last year's heat dome and this year's rain, as well as import prices and inflation. Marketing will push cherry sales through August.

ADMINISTRATIVE REPORT

Co-Administrator Alexander-Rolison reported that the Commissioner region map reported at the April 13 meeting was indeed correct with the ODA. The information presented was found outside of the state website, thus the reason for it being outdated. A Commissioner Handbook is being created with a goal of having it ready for review early July 2022.

Alexander-Rolison requested approval to work on a new OSCC logo for Commission consideration. It was suggested that no more than three options be presented for review.

It was also reported that ODA sent the administrative office the appointments and reappointment letters for Commissioners. JD Walker and Tony Guisto were reappointed for a second term and new Commissioners Ian Chandler and Mike Elias will start July 1, 2022. The Producer 1 (Western Oregon) position is still vacant.

OREGON DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE REPORT - Theresa Yoshioka

Director Alixs Taylor has been named the U.S. Agriculture Department's undersecretary of trade and foreign agricultural affairs.

The deadline to apply for Disaster Relief is on June 3.

If any fresh growers would like more information on leads for trade to Korea or China, please contact Theresa.

OSU RESEARCH & EXTENSION REPORT - Stuart Reitz

Mid-Columbia Agricultural Research and Extension Center (MCAREC) renovations are coming along. A new roof is going on the Cold Storage building where the ARS lab will be. Dr. Gambila received an equipment grant through the OSU research office for a microscope.

The process for the permanent director position is still going forward.

ODA Produce Safety Workshop will be held at MCAREC on June 9 to review FSMA rule, requirements, and best management practices.

NORTHWEST HORTICULTURE COUNCIL REPORT - Riley Bushue

Riley was unable to attend and sent this update via email to be shared at the meeting.

USDA's heat disaster relief program announcement that was made earlier this month. Growers impacted by extreme heat and other eligible natural disaster events in 2020 and 2021 can receive disaster relief payments under phase one of the USDA Farm Service Agency's new Emergency Relief Program. This first phase is limited to growers who had crop insurance coverage and received an indemnity payment. USDA will be using information from those crop insurance filings to determine losses and payment will be made based on that loss and a growers coverage level. For more information or to apply, growers should speak to their local county FSA office. Growers receiving payments under this program will be required to maintain crop insurance for two years.

USDA has indicated there will be a second phase for growers who did not have crop insurance coverage, but no timeline or details have been made available yet.

2022-2023 Budget Hearing Closed at 2:30 p.m.

Co-Administrator Alexander-Rolison presented the Commission with a revised budget (Attachment A), explaining that the adjustment came from updating expenses for the remainder of the 2021-22 fiscal year that reduced the carryover amount and the overall budget.

Jeff Heater moved to adopt the 2022-2023 budget of $2,038,708.99. Seconded by Stacey Cooper. A roll call was taken, and motion carried unanimously.

MINUTES AND FINANCIAL REPORT

The minutes of April 13, 2022 were provided to the Commission prior to the meeting. Chair Thompson asked if there were any questions or edits pertaining to the minutes. JD Walker found a spelling error of the word quorum.

Spacey Cooper moved to approve the April 13, 2022 meeting minutes with the spelling correction. Seconded by Jeff Heater. A roll call was taken, and motion carried unanimously.

Co-Administrator Julie Hoffman provided a financial report (Attachment B) for July 1, 2021 through April 30, 2022 showing a beginning fund balance of $703,087.06. Revenue through April 30, 2022 was $910,116.40, giving a total revenue and fund balance $1,613,203.47 with total expenses through April 30, 2022 of $1,011,661.88, leaving an ending fund balance of $601,541.59.

Jeff Heater moved to approve the June 1, 2022 financials. Seconded by JD Walker. A roll call was taken, and motion carried unanimously.
